A Note from the Activity Department...

The day the music died... February 3rd, 1959, Clear Lake, IA

I'm pretty sure you are all familiar with the Buddy Holly story and how big of a celebration is held each year in Clear Lake in honor of the 3 singers who were killed in the crash.

This will be the 3rd year we picked a day here at the facility to celebrate the 50's in honor of Buddy Holly Weekend. The residents designed their own Cat glasses and picked out colorful scarves to wear on Wednesday, January 31st. The afternoon was filled with songs from the 50's performed by Dan's Band, We had rootbeer floats to follow.

It was a rockin' and rollin' kinda day!

Shana & Trish

Peggy Sue, Peggy Sue
Oh how my heart
yearns for you
Oh Peggy, my Peggy Sue
Oh well, I love you gal,
yes, I love you
Peggy Sue!

Buddy Holly Trivia....Did you know???

Died when his chartered plane (N 3794 N) crashed. Also on board and killed in the crash were Ritchie Valens and The Big Bopper (J.P. Richardson).

His date of death (February 3, 1959) was forever immortalized as "The Day the Music Died" in the song "American Pie" by Don McLean.

Waylon Jennings was part of Buddy's backup group and was supposed to be on the fateful flight but instead allowed an ill Big Bopper to take his place.

Buddy's group was The Crickets. They stayed together after his death.

1955 graduate of Lubbock High School

High school girlfriend was named Echo.

Surname was originally spelled "Holley" but misspelled "Holly" on his first recording contract & the error was never corrected.

Charter member of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1986.

He was voted the 13th Greatest Rock 'n' Roll Artist of all time by Rolling Stone.

Was portrayed by Gary Busey in The Buddy Holly Story (1978)

New Medicare cards will be issued by CMS and recipients can expect to receive them between April 2018 and April 2019. Your social security number will be removed from your card and your new Medicare number will be unique to you. Coverage or benefits will remain the same.

CMS recommends that your mailing address is up to date. If it needs to be corrected, contact Social Security at ssa.gov/myaccount or call 1-800-772-1213.

Beware of anyone who contacts you about your new Medicare card. CMS would never ask you to give them personal or private information to get your new Medicare number or card.

Also, understand that mailing everyone a new card will take some time. Your card might arrive at a different time than your friend's or neighbor's.
